Arthur Fisk Yard Master At Leffol-le-Grand Terminal Returns Home After Distinguished Service

Arthur Fisk who left the employ of the S. P. to enlist in the American railway engineers division over seas returned to Sonoma Thursday morning accompanied by his wife and baby, Phylles, who went to S. F. to meet him.

Fisk arrived in France last June and during the first great American drive went into the Toul sector hauling troops provisions and ammunition to the front. As the railroad equipment was specially marked for destruction by German air planes the work was very hazardous, many trains and the railroad yards at some points being demolished by direct hits from enemy air men. After fine service in the Toul and Verdun offensive, Fisk was placed in charge of the big terminal yards at Leffol-le-Grand and made yard master. A letter from his Captain commending him for a distinguished service medal was given the young American railroad man for loyal and splendid conduct. The following letter touches on this recommendation and is the proud possession of the Sonoma boy:

Office of Sup. 3rd Div. A. P. O.
Office of Sup. 3rd Div. A. P. O. 758
To Whom it May Concern:

A. M. Fisk, Yard Master at Leffol-le-Grand terminal has at all times rendered excellent service. Although he has never had previous experience as a Yard Master, he quickly became competent and performed his duties in so satisfactory a manner that he was later promoted to rank of Master Engineer, Junior Grande. He has at all times not only performed satisfactory work but shown a perserverance a loyalty and assiduity that placed him far above the average of our personnal. It was my pleasure to recommend him for a Distinguished Service Medal, which he highly deserves.

It is a pleasure to commend him to his employer in the U. S. A. and express my gratification for the work which he has done.

J. E. SLATER
Capt. Trans. Corp. 3rd Div.

Fisk has been handling the equipment turned over by the Germans just prior to his coming back to the U. S. A. and he saw over 1,000 locomotives and many cannon turned over to Uncle Sam.

He is glad to be back in California and says that outside of southern France on the Mediterranean where he enjoyed a two weeks furlough that California is the peer of la belle France in every way.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisk leave for Watsonville to-day where the young engineer will resume his position with the S. P. all his seniority rights awaiting him after his loyal service in the war of humanity.

Mr. McGann Cook at Fetters Accidentally Loses Life In Swimming Tank.

Maurice McGann, Chef at Fetters Springs, attempted to take an early morning plunge in the swimming tank at the resort Tuesday morning and it is presumed struck his head in the dive and drowned. The masseur missed the man from the dressing room assigned him and the next instant saw him struggling in the water. He jumped in after the drowning man but reached McGann's side too late. He was pulled from the tank and Dr Hays was summoned but resuscitation was impossible. Coroner Phillips held an inquest and a jury's verdict was accidental drowning. Deceased's wife was in S. F. and returned that morning to hear the tragic news of her husband's death. Three children also mourn McGann.

The hearing on the application of the San Rafael and Sonoma Valley Auto Stage Line before the Railroad Commission has been set for June 2nd at 9 a. m. in San Rafael.

Dancing to ultra jazz music of sax aphone, piano and banjo concluded the concert evening.

WIFE THINKS HUSBAND SUICIDE

Laura Chase Vassar Receives Despondent Letter From North and Believes Spouse Carried Out Self Destruction Plan.

Mrs. Frank Vassar, formerly Laura Chase, the beautiful young wife of a former prominent San Francisco hotel man, fears for the fate of her husband, who in a despondent letter, written to her last week, intimated that he was contemplating suicide. He had suffered a nervous breakdown and gone to Oregon in quest of recreation and health. Mrs. Vassar came up here with her two pretty children to visit her mother, Mrs. May Chase, and the letter she received from her husband, caused her great alarm so she wired the chief of police of Portland to investigate. Up to Thursday, no trace of Vassar had been found but as he promised in the foreboding letter, he forwarded all his effects, including money and jewelry to his wife here and left a suit case and two overcoats, now unclaimed for 10 days at the hotel in Portland where he first registered. Mrs. Vassar fears that his body may be in the treacherous waters of the Columbia river or may be found in some unaccessible spot.

The couple were extremely happy and Vassar was an exemplary husband and father, devoted to his wife and little family.

Over work in handling tourist traffice at the Palace hotel where he was employed, forced him to give up his duties some time ago and physicians advised a complete rest and change of scene to restore him. He was an Englishman, about 39 years of age and a man of pleasing personality and had a host of friends. Mrs. Vassar is heartbroken and is exhausting every means to determine whether her husband is really dead or has lost his reason and may be adrift in some strange locality, devoid of memory and knowledge of his own identity. Money in three San Francisco banks was left intact by him and he sent her all the ready money he took north with him and a gold watch.

Sergeant Isaac Bair is home after gallant action in France. A gold service star on our flag commemorates his brother's sacrifice in the great war in which both boys participated.

A CHINESE HONEYMOON IN THE VALLEY OF THE MOON

After a brilliant wedding in the First Baptist church at Fresno where 300 guests felicitated them and deluged them with wedding presents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wong decided to spend a portion of their honeymoon in the Valley of the Moon where the groom's father resides and where his god mother Mrs. L. S. Simmons was sponsor for him at his baptism some years ago at Trinity Episcopol Church. The young couple were entertained at the Simmons home and the pretty little almond eyed bride laden with quantities of oriental jewels was much feted during her stay here. Mr. and Mrs. Wong visited their honorable parent who is a trusted employee of the Snyder ranch and altogether enjoyed their sojourn in Sonoma exceedingly. Earl Wong is the buyer for one of Fresno's big Chinese restaurants and after leaving here went to San Francisco where he and his bride were registered at the St. Francis hotel.

James Wratten Succumbs to Acute Attack After Walking Home Last Wednesday.

James Wratten, who had passed four score years of life's journey died very suddenly Tuesday after walking home from Sonoma to his home on Riverside Drive, El Verano. The old gentleman had a ride into town but attempted to walk back and as the day was exceedingly warm, he found it a great effort, arriving finally in a bad condition and complaining to his sister that he was quite ill. She sent for the doctor but before the physician arrived, the patient had expired. Coroner Phillips was notified and the official came over and held an inquest which revealed the cause of death, heart failure.

Mr. Wratten belonged to an old time Sonoma Valley family, his father and mother having resided here in the 50's and his brother, George Wratten the attorney, being the first cashier of the Sonoma Valley Bank founded in 1875 with Dave Burris, A. Haraszthy, F. T. Duhring and others as directors.

The Wratten place was later owned by E. K. Stevenot. The funeral was under the auspices of the Masons on Thursday.

Teachers Have A Right To Better Competence

THE COUNTRY is waking up from ocean to ocean on the question of allowing a better competence to public school teachers, and it is high time that the profession which means so much to citizenship should receive the better pay check which present day living cost makes absolutely necessary. A shortage of teachers is reported everywhere and is is little wonder, for the salaries paid have been no inducement when compared with other lines which our young men and women could follow and from which they could make and save a lot more. As to inducing the naturally fitted and endowed educators of future citizens to enter the teaching ranks, the inducement of fine salaries has played no part at all and those who took up the work have been guided in many instances by natural love for it, or by the belief that it would be a stepping stone to something better.

Money, itself can never really compensate the teachers who consecrate their lives to the training and education of future citizens, but money helps to make their environment as it should be and enables them to have the comforts and necessities which go to make them more fit for their daily task. Teachers require more than some classes of workers, and are entitled to it. That they should ever be disconcerted because of insufficient means to live according to modern standards, is painful to contemplate, and yet, it has existed, even among college professors. Of all minds, the minds of teachers should be at rest and un-harrassed by financial problems for they need all of their energies of mind and body in their work and their mental attitude must be harmonius when in contact with the varying mentalities to which they must daily appeal and in which they must find response to suggestion and inspiration. Teachers pay should not only be sufficient and a guarantee against worry, but it should be enough to permit the recreations, and what to some might be even considered luxuries, good books, lectures, concerts, travel and kindred educative pleasures to enrich the spirit which they bring into the school room and preclude stagnation.

Says the Literary Digest in an excellent plea for "Justice for the Foster Parents of our Children" "there is no class of workers of which we demand so much. We commit into their keeping, the mind, the bodies and the very souls of our children in the tender and formative years of their lives, and they, receiving these children, can indeed be said to hold in the hollow of their hands, the future of America."

Well may we, to an individual, advocate bringing up the salaries of our teachers to the proper level, commensurate with the duties which devolve upon them, the exacting demands imposed, the training and spirit required and the importance of the task of fashioning units for that great democracy which is America's pride.

Sonoma County Wines and Our Sons and Daughters

SOME MORE of that choice advertising of California on which the "drys" pride themselves, has been disseminated by the arch distributer of calumny, a recalled state senator, Edwin Grant, of the Law Enforcement League, whose latest bilge water has been bottled up and sent to Washington for the edification of Congress and Senator Phelan, who is urged to save California from disgrace and to see to it that the war-time prohibition on wine and beer is enforced. Grant adds insult to injury by citing Sonoma County, a grape growing section, as the home of young men and women "sunk to their lowest depths because of their craving appetite for wine." This despicable piece of slander should arouse every citizen, the length and breadth of Imperial Sonoma county and no stone should be left unturned to give the miserable statement the lie, for such it is. Fortunate ly Senator Phelan knows the author of this type of statement and the proneness of reformers to rule or ruin. This ilk and their methods, was repudiated here in Sonoma county and given short shift when they conducted the investigation which Grant claims reveals the ravages of wine on our young men and women. Because Sonoma county refused to harbor him and take any stock in his affidavits, Grant would ruin Sonoma county, charging all the infamy he scented, to wine, because that is the only issue at present on which he hopes to be able to crack his whip. It is altogether possible that if some of the Enforcement League members happened in Sonoma Valley last summer, that they might have easily mistook some of Grant's own agents for the degraded victims of our wine producing acreage and might even have suspected that Sonoma county young women were addicted to cigarettes. Sonoma county has this sort drift in now and then, but our own young men and women, the ones most in contact with wines at all times, and in quantities as high as 200,000 gallons, the sons and daughters of our wine makers are the finest types of young people to be found anywhere. Their intellects and character measure up to the highest standards and they would be a credit to communities anywhere in the world.

In Santa Rosa, Healdsburg and Cloverdale, and right here in Sonoma Valley, we have examples of youth surrounded by vintage, new and old, and we defy the most critical and suspicious, to find more intellect, talent, beauty, ambition, energy, idealism and good material for citizenship than in inherent in the sons and daughters of our vineyordists. True, they will not see things with the choleric eye of a reformer, nor seek to cure excesses by spectacular exposes, legislation and persecution. They are not abnormal white hopes of an effulgent millineum, nor have they craving appetites for the ruination of those who differ with them in their views, but however non-understandable it may be to Grant, whose conception of good people is inseparable with these qualities, the young men and women of Sonoma county are endowed with all the virtues which society demands and all the good which education fosters.

Fortunately Sonoma county has a fine champion at Washington in Congressman Lea, who has had dealings with these detractors of our youth and their kind, and not only will repudiate them and their methods, but will rise with all the splendid power which he possesses, to the defense of Imperial Sonoma county and its substantial and promising citizenship. Let us be thankful that we have such a MAN at the National Capitol to refute the miserable allegations of professional reform.

DECORATION DAY, more fraught with meaning than ever, to the present generation, was observed widely yesterday. May it ever occupy a reverent place on the calendar and a hallowed spot in the hearts of the Nation.

FINE POSITION TENDERED DE WITT MONTGOMEIY

DeWitt Montgomery, who has been principal of the Santa Rosa high school for the past eight years, has been offered the superintendency of the Visalia school department at a salary of 3,500, and will have an important position in its schools to fill with the new school year, July 1.

Mr. Montgomery is in Visalia at present conferring with the board of education, but with the big increase in salary and the promotion which it offers there is little doubt but that the offer will be accepted and that when Mr. Montgomery returns he will tender his resignation to the board of education.

Mr. Montgomery was principal of the Sonoma high school for some time prior to twelve years ago, when he was elected county superintendent of schools of Sonoma county. After four years in that office he became principal of the Santa Rosa high school, a position he has filled with unusual satisfaction to the board of education.

The host of friends of Professor and Mrs. Montgomery will regret to see them leave Santa Rosa, but will rejoice with them over the opportunity for advancement thus offered, and will unite in giving them felicitations and good wishes for their future welfare and prosperity wherever their lot be cast. -Republican.

MOTORISTS "PINCHED" AT SANTA ANA

After motoring all the way from the Valley of the Moon to the Grand Army Encampment at Santa Ana, and having a former member of the Royal Flying Corps at the wheel of their car, the Shepard party which left the London ranch on a 14 day pleasure jaunt, was "pinched" in the convention city for failure to have proper lights on their machine.. The machine was gayly decorated and was a part of the grand parade down there when a wise cop detected what he believed was a chance to enrich the treasury of his city, so he promptly arrested the driver and the party was taken to headquarters. After a lively seance in court, in which Mrs. Shepard's keen wit and explanation triumphed, Judge Cox dismissed the case thereby upsetting a precedent of seven years, for he has religously "soaked" refractory motorists and has a reputation state wide for being a regular "bear". The Shepard party therefore considered itself most fortunate and not only thanked His Honor, but invited him up to Imperial Sonoma where they promised to show him a good time.

Mrs. Shepard speaks highly of the hospitality of Santa Ana, and the party of seven which accompanied her enjoyed the trip every bit of the way. The run from San Jose to Santa Ana was made in two days.

Hazen Cowan, who was a dispatch rider for Uncle Sam and has wonderful letters commending him for bravery, returned home last week but left at once for Bakersfield where he is participating in the rodeo.

STARS SHINE AT FRATERNAL BALL

Valley of the Moon Chapter Dance Tuesday Evening. Social Success of Season.

The Womans clubhouse never was more tastefully decorated, nor was a prettier setting ever arranged than that in which the Eastern Stars and their guests danced Tuesday night, the occasion being the grand ball of the local Order. Feathery greens screened the musicians on the flower decked stage, and willowy garlands festooned the ceiling and gracefully formed a canopy over the heads of the dancers. Scotch broom was used effectively along the walls.

The music by Schieck's orchestra was par excellence and many of the costumes of the ladies were beautiful and in the very latest mode.

Mrs. Burmester, grand matron of the local Chapter, gowned in a decolette costume of pale blue net and silver, received the visiting delegation from Vallejo and other guests. The floor was under the management of Messrs L. S. Simmons and H. D. Burmester.

A much appreciated feature of the evening were the vocal numbers of M. Sokalay, whose beautiful tenor voice was heard in Tosti's "Could I" and "For You Alone." Mrs Josie Munk of Napa and Miss Small of Eldridge also sang.

Dancing continued until a late hour and card playing was also a diversion for those who did not dance. Delicious punch was dispensed throughout the evening.

SOLDIER ENJOYS HIS FURLOUGH

Paris and Versailles Delight Arthur Coops who Visited Many Famous Places There.

Enclosing views of the Musee de Versailles and the famous hall in which peace is to be signed, La Tour Eiffle, the park and fountains of Palms de Versailles and other famous and beautiful places, Arthur Coops has written the following account of his furlough in France and the wonderful time he enjoyed "over there" during his trip:

Prov. Supply Co. No. 7
April 28, 1919.

Dear Mother and All:

I have just returned from a three day leave in Paree and believe me, it's surely some burg. I took in most everything one could expect to see in the 75 hours in Paris not including traveling time. I left here in company with myself but to my good fortune I picked up a couple of sergeants from the engineers stationed at this town, who were also on a furlough there and so two of us stuck together the whole time we were there and took in the sights of "Gay old Paree". It's almost too much to write down on paper so will have a good deal to tell you when I get home. Well the most important thing I saw was Versailles, town I guess you are reading a good deal about lately as its where "Peace is going to be signed" they say, I surely hope it's so. I myself have had my hand on the famous table it's to take place on. I have been thru the palace and gardens. It as you know was formerly the Palace of Louis 13th, who started it as a hunting preserve and has been perfected up until the present time, it is now a public museum.

There are many details that were explained to us by the Y. M. C. A. guide who took us thru, but I can't write that all down but will send you the post cards of the place, a few at a time and explain them when I get there. I have now great hopes of being in the States on the 4th or at least sometime in July.

I also took in the A. E. F. championship boxing matches wrestling matches and interesting rowing race.

On the first evening I took in the Follies, one of the greatest shows in the world. I can say it's the best I have ever seen in my life. I've got to give the French the credit of having the best vaudeville shows, paintings, art work and sculptures in the world.

The second day we were I believe a little foolish as we took street car rides all over the city. I think we would have done better, to have taken the "Y" rubber-neck wagons but didn not know where to get them until afterwards. All the "Y" trips are absolutely free.

The third day we took a "Y" sight seeing walking trip, thru Napoleon's tomb and the Eiffle tower and a good many other buildings and museums the names of which I do not remember and last but not least the great war picture which is painted on canvas, th canvas being over twenty feet high and forms a circle around the wall of the building. That is the building is round, the observation platform being in the center. The picture was painted right where it hangs and took a little over four years to complete it, each human that is on it represents a living or dead hero and was painted either from a photo or other painting. I have a set of postals of it and there were 19 artists who worked on it, over the top of figures is the landscape as near as possible representing the western front, giving the mountains, rivers and towns. I'll say it's certainly a fine piece of work.

In the afternoon we took in Versailles as I have already told you about and that evening we took in the boxing matches etc. President Wilson was supposed to be present, but was not. General Pershing was there and Prince of Belgium also noted French officers and others. The house was packed.

The next day we slept late being up several nights in succession, that is 9 o'clock so with the short time left after eating, we located our station and took in some more interesting scenery around the Opera. In the afternoon we went on the ferry trip on the Seine the trip being kind of short on account of the rowing races going on at the same time.

At 8 o'clock our train left and now I'm back at the old grind.

This is not explaining very much of the trip but with the aid of the cards you will be able to follow me, until I'll be able to explain further.

You see I've enjoyed myself very much and it was next best to going home. I am well and going along fine hoping you are all the same I am as ever,

Your son,
Arthur A. Coops.

MRS. SHEPARD'S GRANDSON HAS CROIX DE GUERRE

Bert Shepard, grandson of Mrs. Eliza Shepard of the London ranch, is expected up to the ranch today on a visit. The young man has recently returned from France where he won the Croix de Guerre for valiant service on the battle field, when under shell fire, he drove his Ford ambulance to rescue dying and wounded soldiers and conveyed them to the larger ambulances back of the lines. He was with the French forces.

Mrs. W. R. Hansen of Vineburg and a party of friends were in Santa Rosa Saturday last for the Odd Fellows celebration.

Mrs. D. Volquardsen will entertain the Flying Needles the first Wednesday in June.

RANCH SOLD FOR WATER SUPPLY

$90,000 Appropriation For State Home Signed By Governor, Also Other Appropriation Bills.

Adequate water system	$90,000
Modern sewer system	26,000
New cottage	28,000

The above appropriation measures providing for improvements at the Sonoma State Home have been signed by Governor Stephens, so much activity is scheduled at the big institution in the Sonoma Valley.

Senate Bill No. 59, introduced by Senator Herbert Slater was one of the budget bills signed, and provides for the consummation of the purchase of the Warboys-Reynolds ranch at the headwaters of Sonoma creek from where water will be piped to the Eldridge institution. Although ranch owners along the creek at first feared the flow into the creek, which they utilize for irrigation and other purposes, would be seriously impaired by the dam to be constructed on the Reynolds ranch by the state, engineers for the State Board declare it will not materially effect the supply down the valley. The ranch property where the water supply is situated brought approximately $40,000 and $50,000 will be spent in development and piping.

The new sewage system is badly needed to care for the constantly increasing number of inmates and attendants at the Home.

The $28,000 provided for additional cottage room will care for 75 more patients, now on the waiting list.

Assemblymen Robt. Madison of Santa Rosa and Stevens of Healdsburg sponsored the latter two bills.

THE KIND OF ADVERTISING OUR "DRY" FRIENDS DO FOR SONOMA

A telegram urging him to "save San Francisco and California from disgrace," by refusing to support President Wilson in his recommendation to congress to repeal the war-time prohibition law, was yesterday sent to Senator James D. Phelan in Washington by Edwin E. Grant, Executive officer of the State Law Enforcement League with offices in the Monadnock building.

In his message Grant said that an investigation conducted recently by the League in Sonoma county, one of the few grape growing sections in the State which has always voted wet, they found conditions deplorable. He said that they found young men and women who had sunk to the lowest depths because of their craving appetite for wine.

Grant stated that but for the "wet" vote of San Francisco, California would have become bone dry at the last election in which the liquor question was voted upon.

The San Francisco headquarters of the Women's Christian Temperance Union announced yesterday that they also had sent to California's senators and congressmen, messages in which thy urged them to do everything in their power against the proposed measure to lift the ban on wine and beer. The messages were signed by Sarah J. Dorr, president, and Ann Deyo, Secretary. —Examiner.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Adler visited San Francisco Tuesday, Mr. Adler going down to supervise the display of hand made furniture and cabinet work from his Sonoma mill, choice patterns of many of his sample tables, desks etc, being on display at the Exchange.

KEPT LOG OF WAR CRUISE

Log Kept by W. D. Foley, U. S. N. During War Days Has Interesting Episodes.

June 28, 1917, at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, a series of entertainments are arranged which will extend to July 5 for the special benefit of our Squadron. All well.

June 30, 1917, the U. S. S. Glacier arrived at 8.30 a. m. with stores and mail for the squadron which was eagerly sought and greatly appreciated by all. The privilege of lights was extended to 10 p. m., to give all ample time to read news from home. The usual shore leave was granted but most of the men enjoyed reading their mail in preference. A French cruiser arrived at 6 p. m.

July 3rd 1917, money was served out and many went ashore to enjoy themselves and to purchase necessary articles and presents for loved ones at home. Prize fights are on tap for the amusement of the boys and many will attend. Glasgow arrived, also British cruiser Limerick.

July 4th, all ships of the Allied forces sent men to participate in the big street parade given in honor of our Independence Day. All ships are gayly decorated and a national salute of 21 guns fired from all ships in honor of the United States. The parade was magnificent and unique, headed by the president of Brazil and Admiral Coperton, U. S. N., the commander in chief of the Allied Forces in the South Atlantic, other Government officials and Army and Navy officers, city officials, the Brazilian Army and Navy and Marines. 1000 men from U. S. Marines and Blue Jackets; 200 men from British marines and sailors; 500 French Marines and Sailors; 300 men of various organizations and societies carrying flags of the Allied forces.

Old Glory seemed to look her prettiest when she was floated to the breeze from the Palace alongside of the Brazilian flag which is said to be the prettiest flag of all (but not in my estimation)

July 5th, at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, the American colony in Rio arranged a series of sports for the American Squadron which were enjoyed by all. Our boys entered the sports and carried most of the prizes off. Our Squadron will probably sail tomorrow.

July 6, 1917, Squadron got up anchor and steamed out of the harbor amid the cheers and salutes from Brazilian people and war ships in the harbor as we passed by the fortifications, they too saluted. All seemed to regret our departure. After clearing land, we fell in the usual Squadron formation, shaped our course S. E. and all settled down to the usual sea routine.

AMERICAN SOLDIER WAS IN GERMANY LAST DECEMBER

Fritz Helberg was in Germany last Christmas with the Army of Occupation and the thermometer was 5 degrees below zero. He passed through desolated Belgium and describes graphically the awful havoc wrought by the Germans and the condition of the refugees.

He found Luxembourg a most beautiful city and about the middle of December was on the Moselle river at Trier. Here is beautiful vineyard country, the vineyards are planted on steep cliffs and slope down to the river. He declares that he was well treated by the German people, slept in a feather bed and could get almost any attention for soap or chocolate which the Germans were eager to obtain.

The American troops guarded tunnels and bridges in Germany and in cannon practice showed their fine marksmanship at a distance as far as 13,000 yards.

Although the enemy was dropping bombs just 3 miles away from him in the vicinity of the Argonne, before the war ceased, Fritz says he enjoyed the experiences he went through and would not trade it for the world. He speaks with regret of the terrible inroad of the influenza "over there" and recalled an acre cemetery, solid with white crosses, for our boys victims of the "flu".

Helberg is the picture of health and happiness and after a visit at his Schellville home, is to resume his position with Wellman Peck & Co., San Francisco. In June he will wed Miss Edna Holubar in that city.

SONOMA REALTY IN DEMAND

It is reported on good authority that a few days after Tony Silva purchased the Simon place of 32 acres, that he was offered $1,000 more than he paid for it.

S. N. S. TRACK MEET AT ST. HELENA

On Saturday, May 24, 1919 eleven schools took part in the S. N. S. track meet at St. Helena. The schools represented were: Healdsburg, Cloverdale, Arnujo, Rio Vista, Napa, Analy, Santa Rosa, Calistoga, Sonoma, St. Helena and Vacaville. Sonoma's talent being represented by Schell, Prestwood, and Manuck in the 50 yard dash and the 100 yard dash, by Manuck, Palmer and Cameron in the 220 yard dash, by Palmer and Cameron in the 440 yard dash, and by Bertalotti and Steiner in the 880 yard race. Batto, Prestwood and Manuck competed for the broad jump and Prestwood and Batto in the high jump. Cameron was the only one from Sonoma entered in the 12 lb shot put and javelin throw. In the relay race, Prestwood, Palmer and Cameron ran, with Schell as a substitute for Manuck. The meet lasted from 1:00 to 5:00 p. m.

The reason why Sonoma boys did not run off with the pennant is simply because they had no place in which to practice nor any equipment. Sonoma High has lots of fine talent in track work. Every one who went, came home an enthusiast for track and, if we have an athletic field next year, just visit the high school and take a look at the 1920 track pennant.

Three cheers for our Don Cameron who won a silver medal for the second place in the 12 lb shot put. Cameron, with very little practice, won four points for Sonoma, getting three in shot put and one in the 220 yard dash.

The hottest day this year was in St. Helena where a dozen or more pupils from Sonoma High went to cheer on the contestants. The sun boiled the crowd in the bleachers to a turn. The heat was so unbearable that at 4:00, o'clock, two machine loads went to White Sulphur Springs for a swim. After Dave Manuck fixed his punctured tire, and they all enjoyed a picnic lunch, they went for a short drive to the St. Helena Sanitarium. The approach to the Sanitarium, which is perched high up on a wooded hill, is by a winding road, affording beautiful glimpses of the orchards and cultivated fields below. At seven-thirty they went to see Dorothy Gish in "Peppy Polly" and at 9:00 o'clock they returned to the St. Helena High School where they enjoyed dancing till half past eleven.

On the trip home, the usual number of machine troubles ocurred such as punctures, blow-outs, busted radiators, no water and low not holding on the machine. But all these were taken in great sport as getting stuck on the road at midnight is all a part of the day's fun. It was Sunday morning at 2 o'clock when we landed in Sonoma again.

All those who went voted the track meet a great success, and all are anxious to go again to St. Helena on June 7 to the meet in which St. Helena and Sonoma and Napa will contest. We confidently expect first place.

Anna Louise Dresel, 1921.

DECIDED VICTORY FOR SONOMA CO'S $1,600,000 ROAD BONDS AT ELECTION SATURDAY

SONOMA VALLEY PRECINCTS GIVE SWEEPING MAJORITY IN FAVOR OF COUNTY HIGHWAY.

SONOMA COUNTY did herself proud Saturday when the $1,640,000 bond issue for the improvement of her roads and highways was endorsed by more than a 2 to 1 vote. Only two precincts voted a majority against the bonds--East and West Fulton, while six precincts go on the honor roll with not a single vote against the bonds--eight others ran a close second with only one adverse vote in the entire precinct.

Out of the 105 precincts of the 122 in the county which had reported up to midnight, the vote stood 5,824 to 812, a total vote of 6,636. The necessary two-thirds vote to carry, on this basis, would have been 4,424, or 1,400 in excess of the necessary two-thirds vote.

The six precincts to head the honor roll which did not cast a single vote against the bonds are Annapolis, Bloomfield, Glen Ellen, East Liberty, Stewart's Point and Valley Ford.

The eight precincts which stand with only one vote against the bonds are Cotati, West Glen Ellen, Kellogg, Lakeville, Magnolia, Rincon, Two Rock and Wilson.

The vote of the seven towns and cities of the county are of special interest and is as follows:
